HORSES AT LAKESIDE.

A visit to the covered stable at Robey, containing about seventy-five stalls, brings one in touch with all the horses that have been housed at the Indiana track since the local racing season came to a close.

Prominent among the horses that have wintered at this track are several American Derby candidates, of which Gregor K., Walter R. Hedges' bay colt by Phoenix-Kola, is the most prominent, by virtue of his numerous wins as a two-year-old when he secured the long end of purses and stakes twelve times, beating most of the best horses racing locally on tracks in all sorts of conditions, at distances from a half mile to one mile. His last start, when he defeated The Conqueror II. a nose under a poor ride, has caused a number of admirers to flock to his standard to concede him a chance to carry off the honors in the American Derby, notwithstanding the fact that the cream of the three-year-old division east and west is entered.

If appearances go for anything it must be said that those punters who delight in taking chances and have backed the colt in the future books have a fair chance to cash their tickets, for never has a thoroughbred wintered in better shape and showed signs of more improvement than has Gregor K. Always what a horseman would call a little big horse, he has spread wonderfully, so that now he appears to be a well-matured horse and equals an average four-year-old in size.

Gregor K. is receiving a slow but careful preparation, and although he is by no means ready to go out and race at present, he is far from being backward. Mr. Hedges has put him to light work since the weather has moderated, and as it is not the intention to start him in any of the races in the southern states, they have more than a month in which to prepare him for the local racing season before the Lakeside meeting begins, and it is extremely doubtful if he faces the flag until the Worth meeting is well on its way.

Aside from the fact that Gregor K. is the star in the Hedges stable some of the other horses he has in training are worthy of mention. Particularly so is Fulminate, which he secured from W. R. Griffin last fall at the Lakeside meeting, and which he has fired and blistered. This horse has wintered well, and Mr. Hedges expects great things of him the coming season. That erratic but speedy horse Haydon, has undergone a change that may work wonders in his running the coming year. Mr. Hedges has always been at a loss how to handle this son of Hermence, and not until last fall did it occur to him that by gelding him it might improve his disposition. In the preliminary work that he has been given he has fulfilled the expectations of his trainer and showed decided improvement of form.

J. E. Cushing, the owner of Boundless, the American Derby winner of 1893, arrived at Lakeside Sunday from his farm near Minneapolis, Minn., with nine horses, five of which are two-year-olds. The older horses consist of Belle Graham, Sam Clarke, Dyxona, and Hattie Walker. The two-year-olds are:

Louise Manning, b. f., by Boundless-Fortitude.
Ralph Young, ch. c., by Oakwood-Fergo.
William Wright, b. c., by Boundless-May Bee.
Edgar Guinzberg, b. c., by Boundless-Courtship.

Saint Tucker, ch. c., by St. Florian-Nan-tucket.

J. D. McMillan's horses Dandola and Angelo, the latter a three-year-old of more than ordinary promise, have wintered well at the Roby track, and appear in the pink of condition, and sufficiently far enough advanced to line up to the barrier in a six furlong sprint. Mr. McMillan appears decidedly sweet on Angelo, and thinks he has a horse more than above the average in the son of Hermence-Useful.

Alderman Carey's Malay, in charge of Marshal Lyman, arrived at Roby from H. I. Saxton's farm last Sunday, and will be put in active training at once.

R. M. Hennessey arrived at Roby Sunday from California with the horses Wing Dance, Dirdie D. and Mi Reina.

G. B. Havill's horses Our Cora, Rabbit, Chicago Girl and a maiden three-year-old, look decidedly well and nearly up to a race.

The horses of G. B. Grimes (receiver, Miss Liza and Old Mike, have wintered in great shape, and great things are expected of the former.

Jockey Campbell, ruled off at Newport in 1898 for a suspicious ride on Al Lone, and reinstated at the last January meeting of the Western Jockey Club, has signed to ride for J. D. McMillan the coming season.

Keating & Hecker's Derby candidate, Malory, by Magnetizer-Dodo, is receiving a good deal of attention at Roby from horsemen stabling there. Although he is practically an unknown quantity in these parts, he gives one the impression of being a useful horse by the manner in which he handles himself, and the easy style he has of covering ground.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The Saratoga Special's list of nominations was augmented last Saturday by the naming of candidates from the stables of Andrew Miller, steward of the Jockey Club, and the new owner of thoroughbred horses, William B. Leeds, who will try for honors this season for the first time. This brings the number of nominations to the Special up to seven. The stake closes on March 9, and judging from past experiences, so far as the naming of horses for stakes is concerned, the secretary of the Saratoga Association for the Improvement of the Breed of Horses may reasonably expect a number of additional entries to the stake before the date of closing.

Nominations to the Special so far have come from unexpected quarters in the majority of cases. Captain Sam Brown was one of the earliest of the nominators to the interesting Saratoga stake. Phil Dwyer's nomination was not expected either, but those from Larry Waterbury, Mr. Leeds and Dr. H. Lyman came in the nature of surprises.

There is every probability that the Keene, Belmont and Whitney stables, as well as other prominent ones in the east, will be found in the list of nominations before the stake's closing.

All of the stakes for the spring meeting of the Metropolitan Jockey Club at the new Jamaica track have filled well. The two-year-old events are particularly well patronized. One of the most interesting is the Rosedale Stakes for fillies, for which nearly all of the more prominent owners have made nominations. August Belmont has named Silver Dream, by Henry of Navarre-Golden Dream; Woodspring, by Hastings-Wood-

Went to post at 2:31. At post 9 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Moderator was off well in motion, displayed the most speed throughout and was never in trouble. Tom Collins was hustled along all of the last furlong to stall off Antonius. The latter was as good as left at the post, closed up a big gap and finished fast. He was on the extreme outside all the way. Henry of Trastamare began slowly and was the victim of an ill-judged ride, but finished fast.

Winner—Ch. h., by Hermence—Veronica (trained by S. C. Hildreth).
Went to post at 3:08. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Censor began slowly, closed up a big gap at his leisure and came away in the stretch. Malster swerved over into the deep going in the last furlong. He was used up racing Allyar to defeat in the first half and was tiring at the end. Russellton ran well, but tired when called on strongly. Allyar was pinched off at the turn into the homestretch and Winkfield did not persevere with him in the last sixteenth. Censor was run up $1,900 over his entrance price and bought in. Malster was claimed by S. C. Hildreth for $1,562.

Time, 25 1/2, 50 1/2, 1:18 1/2.

Winner—Ch. h, by Sir Modred—Cloister (trained by W. Roller). Went to post at 2:31. At post 9 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Moderator was off well in motion, displayed the most speed throughout and was never in trouble. Tom Collins was hustled along all of the last furlong to stall off Antonius. The latter was as good as left at the post, closed up a big gap and finished fast. He was on the extreme outside all the way. Henry of Trastamare began slowly and was the victim of an ill-judged ride, but finished fast. Scratched—37716 Lady Brockway, 97. Overweights—Cinch, 2 pounds. Moderator, show, evens. Tom Collins, show, 2 to 1. Antonius, show, 2 to 5. Henry of Trastamare, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—Ch. h, by Hermence—Veronica (trained by S. C. Hildreth). Went to post at 3:08. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Censor began slowly, closed up a big gap at his leisure and came away in the stretch. Maltster swerved over into the deep going in the last furlong. He was used up racing Ailyar to defeat in the first half and was tiring at the end. Russellton ran well, but tired when called on strongly. Ailyar was pinched off at the turn into the homestretch and Winkfield did not persevere with him in the last sixteenth. Censor was run up $1,900 over his entrance price and bought in. Maltster was claimed by S. C. Hildreth for $1,562. Scratched—(37693)The Caxton, 105. Maltster, show, out. Russellton, show, evens. Ailyar, show, out.

Winner—Ch. g, by Atheling—Stonecrop (trained by S. C. Hildreth). Went to post at 3:39. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won pulled up; second easily. Thane ran as if he outclassed the field and was never fully extended. Albula was under restraint for the first three-quarters, cut the corner at the turn into the homestretch and was best of the others. De Reszke finished fast. Star and Garter tired badly after displaying speed in the early stages. Scratched—37032 Potente, 112. Albula, show, out. De Reszke, show, 1 to 4.

 *Apprentice allowance. Time, 26 $\frac{1}{2}$, 52 $\frac{1}{2}$, 1:21, 1:50, 1:56 $\frac{1}{2}$.
 Winner—Ch. g, by Wadsworth—Glendelia (trained by H. Thorpe).
 Went to post at 4:08. At post 1 minute. Start poor. Won easily; second the same.
 Banish swerved over in front of False Lead and Azim when the barrier went up and the three were as good as left. Banish cut the corner at the first turn and wore the field down while going down the backstretch, assumed command at the stretch turn and came away without great effort. Rastus ran in much improved. Thurlies outgamed Dougherty when it came to a sharp drive. Blue Ridge was cut the backstretch and was pulled up.
 Overweights—Mary Moore, 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ pounds.

Went to post at 4:36. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving.
Sue Johnson was at home in the going, displayed the most speed and was eased up all of the last sixteenth. Denny Duffy outgamed Dodie S. in the final drive. The latter swerved all over the track in the final furlong. Meran had a rough trip, she was bumped into at the start and cut off at the far turn and forced to go to the extreme outside at the turn into the homestretch, but finished fast.
Scratched—37660 Simoon, 97.

 Winner—B. c, by Foul Shot or Service—Marie Foster (trained by G. Covington).
 Went to post at 2:39. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second driving.
 Creedmoor, particularly favored by the going and vigorously handled, stole a long, winning lead and carefully nursed lasted out the journey, but was tiring badly at the end. Brennus closed up a gap from a poor start and was going the fastest of all at the end, and was probably best. Toto Gratiot followed the winner's pace closely and stuck to his work gamely. Gyros, poorly ridden, was swerving into the rail at the end and was unlucky to lose second place. Anvil finished fast. Mordenta closed up a gap.

Baffled was always in striking distance of the leaders and skillfully reserved made good in the stretch in impressive fashion. Colonel Ballantyne ran a game race under a vigorous ride and was much favored by the stiff going. Nilgar, suddenly improved, was prominent for the first six furlongs where he fell away as if short and is strictly a mudlark. Grand Sachem finished fast. Tufts, outrun in the early stages, closed up a big gap, liked the going, and is evidently at his best. Man of Honor went a good seven furlongs.

Winner—B. c, by Oddfellow—Hinda (trained by R. Colson).

Went to post at 3:26. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving.

Horatius moved up fast on the stretch turn, took the lead when straightened out in the stretch run and finished going away in the deep going and was evidently best. James F. forced the pace to the stretch and destroyed his chances by bearing out in the last quarter and finished on the extreme outside. Clausus was carried out by James F. in the stretch and had no chance thereafter. Dupont was hopelessly outrun for the first half, from which point he gained fifteen lengths. Stunts is evidently not a weight carrier and failed to stay.

Horatius, show, evens. Clausus, show, 1 to 3. James F., show, 1 to 3. Dupont, show, 2 to 5.

| Mr. Dingle was favored by the stiff going, beat the barrier and followed the pacemaker closely and outstayed the field after a long stretch drive. Tyrannus closed up a big gap from a bad start, and skillfully nursed moved up gradually and finished fast. Stella Perkins outstayed Pupil at the end. The latter seemingly disliked the going. Tommy Knight was probably the best, as he was repeatedly interfered with and knocked out of the race at the stretch turn, and although swerving all over the stretch he finished the fastest of all. Mr. Farnum went in improved form. Cassie W. displayed early speed, but is a non-stayer. | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | |

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

W. L. Oliver, Dr. H. E. Rowell and Preston Burch left San Francisco for Bennings last Tuesday. Mr. Oliver took Lord Badge, Gaviota, Aledo and Hazel Wood. In the Rowell string are Yellow Tail, Bon Mot, St. Sever and the jumpers Imperious and John Farley. Mr. Burch is without a horse through losing Andrew Ring. Mr. Oliver sold Lone Fisherman to Al Martin for $600.

G. B. Morris says he is willing to match Old England against Kenilworth or any other horse in California at seven furlongs, weight for age. He also expresses a willingness to match a two-year-old in his string against any youngster at Oakland at four furlongs for any amount, or have them meet in a purse and that any kind of a track would do for both races.

J. L. Richards, a wealthy Boston publisher, accompanied by his trainer, Frank Lightfoot, and Dr. F. T. Arbuckle, of Brookline, Mass., are in Lexington, Ky., looking at the two and three-year-old thoroughbreds at the various stock farms, with a view of buying a number of promising horses. Mr. Richards has decided to join the ranks of the running turf, and the horses he buys will be raced in the east this season. He has closed a deal with J. W. Ewing for his two-year-old chestnut filly by Lamplighter—Startle, by Onondaga, and also secured from M. Donohue, Covington, the three-year-old colt Antagonist, by Fitz James—Kawach, by Darebin; the three-year-old bay colt Royal Pirate, by Pirate of Penance—Betty Wilson, for $2,500; a chestnut two-year-old colt by Russell—Maggie B., for $1,500. The last two were bought from J. C. Milam. He also bought of his trainer the four-year-old bay filly Julia Junkin, by Likely—Adieu, by Himyar, for $1,500 and of J. B. Ewing the bay two-year-old by King Eric—Red Cap, by Blue Eyes. He also bought New York from H. M. Ziegler for a good price.

J. E. Madden is a great admirer of Hon. Perry Belmont's horse Ethelbert, now in the stud at Arbdale Farm of J. C. Graves. He has just sent six of his choice mares, as follows, to be mated to the son of Eothen—Maori. They are: Divide, by Rossington—Unite; Monte Rosa, by Mr. Pickwick—Mountain Range; Fleur d'Or, by Rayon d'Or—Blandona; Lady Golfer, by Bramble—Ballyhoo; Hothor, by Himyar—Puffer; Anecdote, by Tom Ochiltree—Lizzie Tabor.

The first work of the season on the track near Lexington in 1903, is reported from J. E. Madden's private training track at Hamburg Place, where several two-year-olds have gone a half in fifty-four seconds, and a three-year-old has cantered seven furlongs in 1:41. Since January 1, no tracks in that section have been at any time in a condition for fast work, even if the horses were ready for an eye-opener and most of the trainers have been using grass paddocks and the city boulevards for their winter training.

Julius Bauer has a miniature straw track at Kenmore farm for the Featherstone horses to walk, trot and canter on, and at Senorita Stud Captain Brown's horses are worked on a covered course about three-eighths of a mile around. A cinder path at the Kentucky Association course is much used by trainers there. Severe as the winter has been, all the horses in training are looking unusually forward in their preparations, which is accounted for by the fact that there has been no sickness among the stables in training in that section this season.

The stewards of the Crescent City Jockey Club have lifted the suspension against jockeys Landry and H. Booker. This means that the boys are in good standing again and that they can accept mounts if they so desire. Landry was suspended on account of the inconsistent running of the horse Belvino. It was supposed at the time that Landry had placed Belvino. After developments, however, it put an entirely different aspect to the matter, and thus the reinstatement.

F. R. Hitchcock, Esq., steward of The Jockey Club, spent last Friday morning at Bennings, carefully going over his stable, in charge of trainer W. P. Burch. He seemed generally pleased with the way his horses wintered. Mr. Hitchcock is en route to New York from Aiken, S. C. Starter Mars Cassidy was also present to make arrangements for schooling the two-year-olds at the barrier as soon as the weather permits. Trainer W. T. Baldwin has arrived at Bennings and has his horses, the property of J. G. Long, of Buffalo, at the Havener place, just outside the track proper. This string includes Circus. If Circus can be gotten as fit as he has been in the past, and he looks good and hard, he may repeat his Montgomery Handicap victory of 1902 in some of the condition races, or possibly in the Bennings Handicap. It will be remembered he won the feature event at Memphis last spring at odds of 100 to 1. Another arrival of interest is the stable of Thomas Crooks, of Hamilton, Canada. Tip Gallant is the principal object of interest in this vine, and Mica, by Hastings—Donna Mia, hence a full sister to Mizzen. Newton Bennington has entered a smart filly Albertola, by Albert—Bonnie Ola, which is a full sister to Herbert. P. J. Dwyer is represented by two fillies, Future Bright, by Ben Brush—Palanthus, and Dame President, by Prince of Monaco—Merry Thought, which is a half-sister to Merry Acrobat. Foxhall P. Keene's entries are two fillies, one by Kingston—Cushat, and the other by Kingston—St. Cypria. James R. Keene also has two fillies, by St. Leonards—Dusk, and Ben Brush—Bonnie Lee, respectively. Pierre Lorillard's single entry is the Lady of Rhodesia, by Ingoldsby—The Governess. Green B. Morris' candidate is Queen Modred, by Sir Modred—Queen Bess, a half sister to Old England. W. C. Whitney has two fillies, by Lissak—Mary C., and Meddler—Urania, respectively. Sidney Paget is the largest nominator, with five youngsters, Thistle Heather, by Knight of The Thistle—Belle Daly; School Mistress, by Hamburg—The Task; Miss Shylock, by St. Gatien—La Belle Juive; Moorhen, by Watercress—Sentiment, and Hamburg Belle, by Hamburg—Isiac.

That there is a general demand for a match race, there can be no denying. Mr. Bell has entered Hermis for all the rich handicaps and weight-for-age races. He has no idea of starting Hermis in all of these events, but his idea has been to have the colt so well engaged that he could go after rich stakes whenever he was absolutely fit. The proposition to match him against McChesney, if Mr. Smathers makes it, therefore, will be somewhat unexpected, for Mr. Bell some time ago declared that Hermis would never meet McChesney in the west. But with the chance of McChesney coming east, and a direct offer of a match from Mr. Smathers, it may be said that Mr. Bell will not only consider it, but will undoubtedly accept under favorable conditions. But the offer must come from McChesney's new owner, so trainer J. H. McCormick says. As match races are illegal in this state, McChesney and Hermis will have to come together under special conditions, a sweepstakes with one of the local racing associations hanging up a purse of say $20,- 000 for the match. Then there could be several entries beside those of the stars, which of course could be scratched on the day of the race. That there would be also a side bet, possibly of $20,000 a side, is a probability, as Mr. Smathers already has the reputation of being one of the biggest turf speculators in this country. The two four-year-olds, if the match is made, will be asked to carry scale weight over a distance of either a mile and a quarter or a mile and a half. As Hermis will be fit to start in such a race at any time the argument is set forth that Mr. Smathers would do well to handle his new purchase with extreme care. He can enter McChesney in the Saratoga Handicap, Saratoga Champion, Saratoga Cup, the Champlain, the Merchants' and Citizens' and the Delaware.—New York Sun.

Horsemen, who in other seasons have wintered at Cumberland Park, will be surprised and pleased at the many changes and improvements that have been made there. The track presents this year an entirely changed appearance. The management has been unsparing of its cash account to the end of making everything pertaining to trainers and their charges complete in the way of comfort. New stables have been built, and, although the usual quota of horses is now there, are the usual quota of horses is now there, there are unoccupied two hundred and thirty stalls, which have been reserved for horses that will be shipped there to participate in the races of the approaching spring meeting.

The two high-priced mares—Reckon and Sallie of Navarre—which stand millionaire S. S. Brown an outlay of over $22,000, are both running together in a paddock at the Oakwood Stud of C. F. McMeekin, where they were sent last fall by their owner and where they will remain until bred to the great Bowling Brook this year. Both are heavy with foal, and if each drops a colt, Captain Brown's cup of joy will be full to overflowing. Both great mares are in the best of health, and though they have a warm stable to run in, they are out of doors most of the time. Barring old Senorita, which will always hold first place in the esteem of Captain Brown, he owns no other mares which he thinks as much of as he does of Reckon and Sallie of Navarre.

PREPARING FOR BENNING.

The mammoth Morris Park course showed to great advantage last Sunday. The sun had a great inning, the temperature was pleasant and the track, after being harrowed, was in tip-top shape. Every trainer was at his post, there were many racers down over the track at useful paces and training days at the big course seem to be far away. The snow has been off the track for several days and the effect has been to bring the trainers and their racers to the track in numbers, and two minute rate of speed has been freely indulged in.

At James McLaughlin's establishment on the backstretch, the trainer was found busy with his extensive string. He is going to make a pretentious bid for honors at Washington in the spring and his Bennings contingent, which is twenty-one strong, is being sent along at good, useful rates of speed. The older horses were sent five furlongs at a two minute clip, and a number of two-year-olds that included M. Theo, a brown filly by Lissak—Madam Reel; Brightwood, a bay gelding by Lissak—Raybelle, and a chestnut colt by Tenny—Loyolella reeled off a half at the same rate of speed.

The lot to go to Washington is in prime condition to be sent down the line, and they will most likely be fit before reaching Bennings. The accounts are that the track is not in good condition there, which will cause McLaughlin to try and get ready before leaving Morris Park.

Eugenia Burch, which is looking in beautiful shape, is not intended for Bennings, and neither is Unmasked. The lot that will take the trip will consist of five two-year-olds and old horses.

Trainer William Brien, who is handling the L. S. Sire string, has his racers quartered at the Tenny Villa stable, on the backstretch. The lot are eight in number, and are composed of six two-year-olds and the three-year-olds Ancke and Attorney. The youngsters are a presentable lot, and compare favorably with any half dozen that have passed under inspection during the winter. They are:

Great Eastern, br. c, by Handsome—Austerly.

Clifton Forge, ch. c, by Handsome—Illisee.

Dancing Wave, ch. f, by Top Gallant—Tarantella.

Soson, ch. f, by Handsome—La Creole.
Seven Oaks, br. f, by Handsome—Message.
Caviet, b. f, by Handsome—Annie G.

JANGLING IN CANADA.

The Ontario Jockey Club has branched out this year and extended its meeting so that it comes the week here used by the Hamilton Jockey Club. The proceeding is not pleasing to the Hamilton folks, so the officials of the Hamilton Jockey Club have recently adopted the following resolution:

"That the Ontario Jockey Club, having extended the usual time of their spring meeting to cover dates on which, since the inception of the Hamilton Jockey Club, our spring meeting has been held, and without consulting or notifying this club, we desire to record our opinion that the conduct of the Ontario Jockey Club has been unsportsmanlike and discourteous to their sister club; and, further, that, as the action of the Ontario Jockey Club shuts us out from the only dates available to us without similar unsportsmanlike interference on our part with dates appropriated by other clubs, we are forced to abandon our spring meeting for this year."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

P. Pink, Chicago. Your are entitled to your money back, there having been no place odds against your horse.

J. B. S., Chicago. Manshak having changed ownership and Dick Bernard having been scratched, there was no Durnell & Herz entry to run.

A chestnut colt by Handsel—Mary H. and a bay filly by Ornament—My Gyss, belonging to John Barbee, were shipped to Roby, Ind., to be trained by Fred Cushing.

Jockey Castro, who rode on the Canadian circuit last season with much success, has reached Cumberland Park, and will probably sign with one of the big stables.

T. P. Hayes sent his Derby colt Orlando three-quarters last Monday at Cumberland Park over a slow track in 1:25. He was accompanied by Outlaw, another promising three-year-old. The two-year-olds in his barn received quarters in :27 and :28 seconds.
